An Olympiad with different disciplines such as weight sawing, barrel salvaging, beam walking, beer mug lifting and other disciplines where besides the competition the fun is in the focus.

There is something for everyone. The programme can be done very well on the spacious green area at the hotel, or indoors when the weather is rainy.

Who wins the wild Waldhotel competition?

Facts:

Number of participants:	starting at 15 persons
Price per person:	50,00 €
Duration:	about 1,5 hours

The forest as a unique event area - experience nature. The Waldhotel is the ideal starting point for the search for traces, in the middle of the beautiful Waldau you can start directly.

Small teams search for traces in the forest. A GPS device serves as navigation instrument, which indicates the distance and direction. Whether the team arrives at its destination on paths and trails or across-country, and in which order the points are scored, is their responsibility.

On the way there are different tasks to solve and challenges to master. Discover nature, experience the forest and strengthen your team spirit. This is an active programme that inspires. A possible addition to this programme is, for example, a barbecue around the campfire.

about 2,5 hours

Maintaining balance is sometimes not an easy challenge, but it is an important goal both in professional and private life.

The Balance Challenge is meant to lead the participants to a balance in an active and playful way and this in interaction with other people. At different stations the team compete against each other or try to achieve balance together. The programme can be done very well on the spacious green area at the hotel or in the conference rooms – completely flexible in type and scope.

Number of participants:

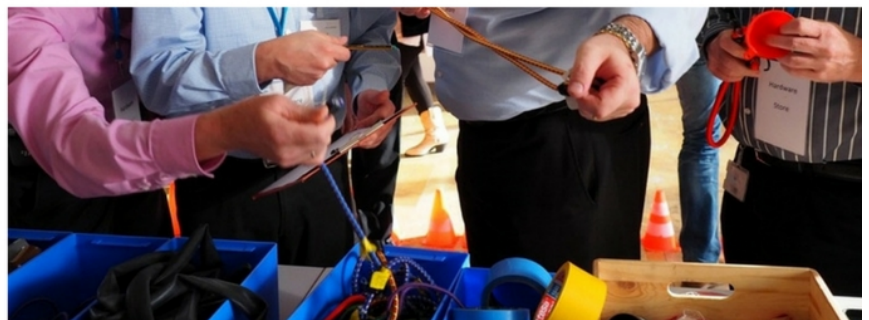

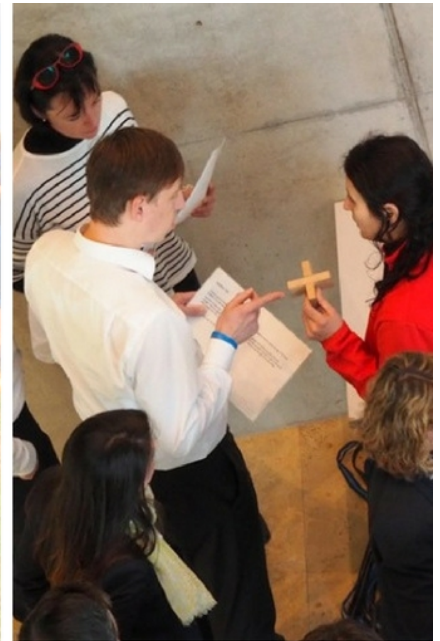

starting at 20 persons

Price per person:

50,00 €

Duration:

about 2 hours

The challenge for the teams is to build a catapult that fulfils certain conditions without a construction plan or instructions.

After the team has been divided up, the first task is to buy suitable materials from the DIY store - means of payment are coloured jewels.

Through additional tasks the teams have the chance to improve their budget.

Once the construction and building phase is completed, the target and long shot competition is started.

The Waldhotel with its large field offers the ideal conditions for this.
